CHORAL INTROIT

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Almighty God,

You gave the law to guide our lives.

May we never shrink from your commandments,

but, as we are taught by your Son Jesus,

fulfill the law in perfect love;

through Christ our Lord and Savior,

who lives and reigns with you

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

One God, now and forever.

Amen!

WELCOME

MORNING PRAYER

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Loving God, we confess to you the times we have neglected your body, the church. Rather than seeking ways to serve and worship, we wonder what we can get out of our time in the church. We repent of our focus simply on self and ask you to renew our desire for the community as we come before you in confession today.

Time of silent reflection and confession...

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

The Apostle Paul explains that we are saved by grace through faith not by works. Friends, God's grace for us is a free gift. Accept it today. In Jesus Christ, your sins have been forgiven! Thanks be to God!

Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Ruth Hancock January 23, 2022

I grew up attending the First Reformed Church in Prairie City, Iowa, a small town just east of Des Moines. My dad and mom were very active in the church, teaching Sunday School, singing in the choir, and attending the men's Bible Study and ladies' Circle Groups. We attended church services every Sunday morning, Sunday evening and Wednesday night church events. As one of eight siblings, we always ended up sitting in the front row of the church. That is where there was the longest row of seats and we were usually one of the last families to get to church each Sunday.

When I graduated from High School and entered the "real" world, I went to a trade school in Minneapolis and then moved back to Des Moines and later Webster City to live and work. I knew right from wrong and didn't feel the need to go to church on a regular basis—at least not until my husband and I took on the full role of guardian for our granddaughter, who came to live with us when she was eight years old.

Because of the urging of someone I worked with, the wonderful youth program the church had and because our neighbor was Rev. Feltman, we decided to visit First Presbyterian Church. We joined the church in 2005. Since joining the church, my husband and I have been answering the call to volunteer usher at the Contemporary Services, I've helped the AV Director during services when needed, I've sung with the of Praise Team. I have served as a table leader for the Wednesday Night Live 5th through 8th grade groups for four years. I've also served on Congregational Life Ministry Team, Technology, and Elder for Property and Finance, and Scholarship Committee. I will begin serving another term as Elder this year.

My First Presbyterian Church family has always been there for me with encouraging words, compassion, and prayers. Looking back over the years I was without a church home, I felt my life was missing something. I didn't feel I had a real purpose. I just existed from day to day, working and doing my own thing. During the time our granddaughter was growing up, I started to realize what God's main plan was for me. And I have been humbled for the opportunity to show and share with my granddaughter and now with her family the love and grace that God shows us each day.

There is a country gospel song "Me and God," written and sung by Josh Turner that I turn to on days when I need a pick-me-up. The words go like this:

"There's nothing that can't be done
By me and God
Ain't nothing coming in between me and God
One day we'll live together
Where the angels trod
Me and God.

Early in the morning talking it over
Me and God
Late at night, talking it over
Me and God
You could say we're like two peas in a pod
Me and God

I am weak and he is strong
Me and God
He forgives me when I'm wrong
Me and God
He's the one I lean on
When life gets hard
Me and God

He's my father
He's my friend
The beginning
And the end
He rules the world
With a staff and a rod
We're a team
Me and God"

Come Sing, O Church, in Joy! 430

DARWALL'S 148TH 6.6.6.8.8

John Darwall, 1770

1. Come sing, O church, in joy! Come join, O church, in song!
 2. Long years have come and gone, And still God reigns su - preme,
 3. Let cour-age be our friend, Let wis-dom be our guide,
 4. Come sing, O church, in joy! Come join, O church, in song!

For Christ the Lord has led us through the a - ges long!
 Em - power-ing us to catch the vi - sion, dream the dream!
 As we in mis-sion mag - ni - fy the Cru - ci - fied!
 For Christ the Lord has tri-umphed o'er the a - ges long!

In bold ac - cord, come cel-e-brate the jour-ney now and praise the Lord!

AURELIA 7.6.7.6 D

Samuel Sebastian Wesley, 1864

1. The chur - ch's one foun - da - tion Is Je - sus Christ her Lord;
 2. E - lect from ev - ery na - tion, Yet one o'er all the earth,
 3. Though with a scorn-ful won - der This world sees her op - pressed,
 4. Mid toil and trib - u - la - tion, And tu - mult of her war,

She is His new cre - a - tion By wa - ter and the word;
 Her char - ter of sal - va - tion One Lord, one faith, one birth;
 By schis - ms rent a - sun - der, By her - e - sies dis - tressed,
 She waits the con - sum - ma - tion Of peace for - ev - er - more;

From heaven He came and sought her To be His ho - ly bride;
 One ho - ly name she bless - es, Par - takes one ho - ly food,
 Yet saints their watch are keep - ing; Their cry goes up: "How long?"
 Till with the vi - sion glo - rious Her long - ing eyes are blest,

With His own blood He bought her, And for her life He died.
 And to one hope she press - es, With ev - ery grace en - dued.
 And soon the night of weep - ing Shall be the morn of song.
 And the great church vic - to - rious Shall be the church at rest.

5. Yet she on earth has union
 With God the Three in One,
 And mystic sweet communion
 With those whose rest is won:
- O happy ones and holy!
 Lord, give us grace that we,
 Like them, the meek and lowly,
 May live eternally.
